12 Months Program: Receive Coaching to Creating Your Ideal Private Practice

Develop Skills for Success! Gain Tools to Take With You

- Becoming a therapist is like a answering a calling.
- When entering the world of private practice being a successful business owner becomes part of your calling.
- Creating a thriving private practice in a fiercely competitive market can be challenging.
 - Learn to think like a business owner while attracting people to your good work.
 - Discover what it takes to create your ideal private practice through structured exercises
 - Move towards your goal one step at a time within the support of a group
- Think of this as building a house in three phases:
 1. The first four months the focus will be on aspects of preparation for building a private practice so you can formulate the blue print.
 2. The second four months will highlight the building blocks in the blue print.
 3. The final four months will spotlight the finishing touches for attracting your ideal client.

It is important to commit to reliable attendance because each phase builds on the previous phase. If you skip meetings you may not gain enough to succeed at the next phase.
